Safeguarding Children & Preventing Abuse

The Archdiocese Addresses Victims' Concerns

The Archdiocese takes very seriously the needs of victims who approach the Church seeking healing from abuse. In addition to offering counseling and other support services, in appropriate cases, the Archdiocese provides reasonable compensation to those victims seeking a financial settlement of their civil claim, even after the statute of limitations has lapsed. Settlements are not confidential unless requested by the victim, and may include funding for continued psychological counseling.

The Archdiocese's general liability insurance coverage is the sole source of funds used to pay abuse settlements. Although the Archdiocese, parishes and schools pay premiums to purchase insurance, no parish or school assets, Archdiocesan assets or Annual Appeal or other fundraising collections are used to pay civil claims related to abuse cases.

Inclusive Mass on Easter Sunday

Join us on Easter Sunday, April 5, 2015 at 1:30 PM at St John the Evangelist Church, 29 North Washington Avenue in Bergenfield, for an inclusive Mass presided by Msgr Richard Arnolds. Inclusive Family Masses are adapted for individuals with special needs and/or gifts, their families and friends. Very often individuals or families living with developmental, intellectual and/or other disabilities do not feel welcome attending their local parish liturgy, although they are very welcome. These are the people and families, in particular, that we are welcoming to attend these Masses and to celebrate the Eucharist with other members of the surrounding community.

For more information, contact Rosemarie Flood 201-384-3601, www.sjrc.org or Anne Masters at 973-639-6536, masteranrcan@gmail.com. Sponsored by St John the Evangelist Church and the office for Pastoral Ministry with Persons with Disabilities for the Newark Archdiocese, Catholic Charities of the Archdiocese of Newark.

CONFERENCE

The Lord's Jester: Re-discovering St Francis of Assisi through the eyes of G K Chesterton

Join the Crossroads Cultural Center on Wednesday, March 25, 2015 at 7 PM for a conversation with Fr Ian BOYD, CSB, President of The G K Chesterton Institute for Faith & Culture, Editor of The Chesterton Review and Dermot QUINN, PhD, Professor of History, Seton Hall University.

"Now for St Francis nothing was ever in the background. We might say that his mind had no background, except perhaps that divine darkness out of which the divine love had called up every colored creature one by one. He saw everything as dramatic, distinct from its setting, not all of a piece like a picture but in action like a play. A bird went by him like an arrow; something with a story and a purpose, though it was a purpose of life and not a purpose of death. A bush could stop him like a brigand; and indeed he was as ready to welcome the brigand as the bush." —G K Chesterton, Saint Francis of Assisi

The event is presented by Crossroads Cultural Center, and The GK Chesterton Institute for Faith and Culture. It is open to the public and free of charge. Crossroads Auditorium, 125 Maiden Lane, 15th Floor, New York City (ID required to enter the building)
