Scriptural Reflections on Stewardship

Blessed are the humble of the earth, blessed are the poor in spirit! Such are the ones God has chosen to confound the strong of this world.

"Consider your own calling, brothers and sisters." - 1 Corinthians 1:26

In his letter to the Corinthians, St. Paul reminds us that all of us are called to participate in the work of the Church. There can be no excuses. We cannot say that we are not wise enough, powerful enough or smart enough. We cannot say that we do not have the time, the talents or the skills. God can use each of us. All we have to do is offer our humble lives to Him and then be willing to follow where He leads.

Every Tuesday, the Blessed Sacrament is exposed in the church from 3 to 4 p.m. It is an hour of prayer for the priests, religious men and women and an increase of vocations to the priesthood and the religious life of the Church. We invite you to come and spend time with the Lord for these intentions and for your personal requests. Holy Hour closes with Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament.

Evangelization Corner.....

Reflecting On The Gospel - Jesus' words in today's Gospel are often called the Beatitudes. With the Beatitudes, Jesus promises that we eventually will find complete happiness; we will know this happiness by turning our lives upside down, ie., by not trying to have what the world says will make us happy. In other words, we are not going to have true and complete happiness just because we have name brand clothes and lots of money.

Genuinely happy people, Jesus says, do not strive to have power and position and things. Rather, they strive to have and offer peace, justice, mercy, forgiveness, charity, respect, patience and love. They try to respond to the needs of other people so that others may know the love of Jesus. They strive to be joyful, even when things don't go just the way they want them to go. This sounds hard, doesn't it?; it is hard if our goal is to get something for ourselves but when our goal is first and foremost to help others and bring peace to every situation in our lives, the grace of God is our strength.

Sharing Ideas - Talk about what each Beatitude means and name one way to live it out.
