Scriptural Reflections on Stewardship

We are “a chosen race, a royal priesthood” called to place our faith and trust in the Spirit of Jesus who guides the community of faith.

“Where I am going you know the way.” - John 14:4
It is often said that stewardship is a way of life. Stewardship is certainly the way that Jesus taught us to live. However, like us, the Apostles seemed to want Jesus to tell them an easier way to get to heaven. But Jesus told them that they knew what they must do. We all know what we must do. We must do the work of the Lord with our time, our talent and our treasure.

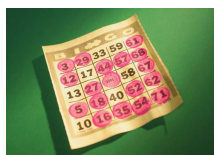

Every Tuesday, the Blessed Sacrament is exposed in the church from 3 to 4 p.m. It is an hour of prayer for the priests, religious men and women and an increase of vocations to the priesthood and the religious life of the Church. We invite you to come and spend time with the Lord for these intentions and for your personal requests. Holy Hour closes with Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament.

AAA MAKING A DIFFERENCE

Christ the King Preparatory School in Newark, sponsored by the Archbishop's Annual Appeal and endorsed by the Sisters of Charity of Saint Elizabeth and the Marist Brothers of the Schools, opened its doors on September 4, 2007. The school's mission is to provide a high-quality, Catholic, college preparatory education to urban young people with limited economic resources and educational options.

Its students have a longer school day and year, academic assistance, and counseling to prepare them with a broad range of academic abilities for college. All students participate in a work-study program through which they finance the majority of the cost of their education, gain real world job experience, grow in self-confidence, and realize the relevance of their education.

This June, Christ the King will graduate its first class of 66 seniors, most of who have already been accepted to college and have been awarded scholarships of more than one million dollars.

Thank you for your support of the Archbishop's Annual Appeal which makes this a reality!

Quotes from the General Instruction of the Roman Missal

May 22, 2011 - Part 2 of 7

On November 27, 2011, the English speaking Church in the USA will begin using a new translation of the prayers used at Mass (The Roman Missal). A series of quotes explaining the parts of the Mass from the General Instruction of the Roman Missal (GIRM) will be posted here. These explanations are meant to help the reader participate more fully in the Sunday Mass. Please check here weekly.

The General Structure of the Mass

At Mass—that is, the Lord's Supper—the People of God is called together, with a priest presiding and acting in the person of Christ, to celebrate the memorial of the Lord, the Eucharistic Sacrifice. For this reason Christ's promise applies in an outstanding way to such a local gathering of the holy Church: "Where two or three are gathered in my name, there am I in their midst" (Mt 18:20). For in the celebration of Mass, in which the Sacrifice of the Cross is perpetuated, Christ is really present in the very liturgical assembly gathered in his name, in the person of the minister, in his word, and indeed substantially and continuously under the eucharistic species.

The Mass is made up, as it were, of two parts: the Liturgy of the Word and the Liturgy of the Eucharist. These, however, are so closely interconnected that they form but one single act of worship. For in the Mass the table both of God's word and of Christ's Body is prepared, from which the faithful may be instructed and refreshed. There are also certain rites that open and conclude the celebration. (GIRM, 27-28)

Evangelization Corner.....

Reflecting On The Gospel - Today we celebrate the 5th Sunday of Easter, yet the Gospel is like a flashback. It takes us back to the Last Supper. Jesus tells his followers that he is going home to his Father where he will prepare a place for them.

So why go back to this Gospel during the Easter Season? Because this is the season when we celebrate the great fact of our faith: Jesus lives! Jesus has been raised from the dead! We remember Jesus' words of eternal life and in remembering his words, we rejoice even more in what the Resurrection means.

The Gospel gives us Jesus' clear directions about following him. He says that he is "the way and the truth and the life." Because we are Catholic Christians and believe in the Risen Jesus, we know the way to live. The way to live is the follow Jesus' teachings, for Jesus taught the Truth. And in following Jesus as the way - because he taught the Truth - we look forward with great joy to everlasting life.

Sharing Ideas - Talk about what makes a person so special to us that we call the, "best friend". Is Jesus even more important than our best friends?
