A MAN HAD TWO SONS. HE CAME TO THE FIRST AND SAID, 'SON, GO OUT AND WORK IN THE VINEYARD TODAY.' HE SAID IN REPLY, 'I WILL NOT,' BUT AFTERWARDS CHANGED HIS MIND AND WENT. THE MAN CAME TO THE OTHER SON AND GAVE THE SAME ORDER. HE SAID IN REPLY, 'YES, SIR,' BUT DID NOT GO. WHICH OF THE TWO DID HIS FATHER'S WILL?"

Safeguarding Children and Addressing Abuse

We Are All Hurt By Child Sexual Abuse

When someone commits an act of abuse against a child – whether within the Church or in public schools, town organizations or in homes – all of society suffers. For that reason, the Archdiocese requires everyone who works with children to be trained in sexual abuse awareness and to undergo a background check. By participating in this effort, we all say “We do not condone abuse within the Church, and are taking steps to eliminate it.” The Protecting God's Children© program is a requirement for those working with children, but is open to all adult parishioners or school parents who wish to learn more about how to ensure safe environments for children in our society.

For a listing of the current sessions of Protecting God's Children©, or to learn more about the Archdiocese's safe environment policies and procedures, visit the Archdiocese of Newark website at www.rcan.org/charter.

Memorial Service for Sister Celeste

Please join us at our semi-annual Anointing Mass, Saturday, October 11th, at 2:00 PM in Centennial Hall.

This year, the Mass will be in memory of Sister Mary Celeste Conti, who died July 14, 2014. Sister Celeste was a beloved member of our Parish Family for over 25 years. She was involved in a variety of Parish Ministries and Activities that included the School, Ministry to the Sick and the Homebound, and the “Helping Hands” Project.

We have invited several of Sister's friends to also join us as we remember this true Sister of Charity.

ROSARY

Public Square Rosary Rallies

Each year, America Needs Fatima holds the Public Square Rosary Crusade, with thousands of Rosary rallies in cities all across the country. Last year, there were 11,247 groups simultaneously praying for our country and the world, all across America—2,000 more than in 2012! These Public Square Rosary Rallies take place on Saturday, October 11, the Saturday before the Feast of the last apparition of Our Lady of Fatima and the Miracle of the Sun. Please join the Saint Ann's Upper Room Prayer group in the 2014 Public Square Rosary Crusade. As we all know, the United States is in great need of public prayer, repentance and conversion. We must ask God to save America through the Rosary of His Most Holy Mother. Please join us in praying for our nation on October 11, 2014 at 12:00 noon. The Public Square Rosary Rally will take place at Sinatra Park at the river and 4th Street. Please contact Al Kotkin @ 347744 8449 for more information.

RELIGIONS OF THE WORLD

Buddhism

By Drew STUART, MA
Catechist

Buddhism is a religion that is native to the continent of Asia. While found primarily in China, Korea, Japan, and Southeast Asia, in recent decades, the Buddhist faith has been growing in popularity in the Western world. Unlike many other religions, Buddhism does not center around belief in God (or gods) and does not have an organized hierarchy. The concept of the divine is instead replaced by the study of Karma, which consists of the laws of cause and effect. To aid in this, Buddhism stresses the need for mindfulness, which is often achieved through meditation. Mindfulness consists of clearing one's mind and becoming aware of and accepting one's thoughts, feelings, etc. in order to live in the present instead of becoming anxious over the past or future.

Buddhism, like other religions, includes multiple ritual praces. Buddhist daily ritual can include meditation and chanting. Some sects also hold monthly atonement ceremonies at the time of the full moon. One major Buddhist holiday is Vesak, the commemoration of Buddha's birth life, enlightenment, and death, which is usually celebrated sometime in May around the full moon.

The foundations of morality within Buddhism are the five moral precepts that guide both the laity and monks. Buddhist's agree to abstain from taking life, theft, acting unchastely, lying, and consuming intoxicants like drugs. Additionally, some Buddhists take the prohibition against taking life so seriously that they adopt veganism, consuming neither meat nor any kind of animal byproduct.

Finally, Buddhism teaches the concept of reincarnation. Upon death, life does not truly end. Instead, the spirit leaves the body and begins a new life in a new body. This concept, also referred to as rebirth, is interpreted differently in different sects of Buddhism.

Overall, while lacking the belief in a divinity, Buddhism still includes many features found in other religions including meditation, ritual observance, moral precepts, and a belief in life after death.

Rituals are also performed for the blessing of infants, the ordination monks (both men and women), marriages, and funeral. Other practices in Buddhism include burning incense, leaving offerings at altars, images, and statues of Buddha, and the use of prayer beads.

Part 2 of our Fall series

XIV Ordinary General Assembly of the Synod of Bishops on the Family (2015)

The Synod will start on October 4. Below are some answers to your questions about it.

When was the most recent Synod?

The most recent Ordinary General Assembly of the Synod of Bishops was held in 2012 (XIII Ordinary General Assembly on the New Evangelization for the Transmission of the Christian Faith)

What are the dates of the XIV Ordinary General Assembly of the Synod of Bishops?

October 4-25, 2015. This Synod will mark the 50th anniversary of the Synod of Bishops.

What is the theme of the XIV Ordinary General Assembly of the Synod of Bishops?

"Jesus Christ reveals the mystery and vocation of the family" (Vatican News, press conference. to present the Instrumentum Laboris for the III Extraordinary General Assembly of the Synod of Bishops)

What is the purpose of the XIV Ordinary General Assembly of the Synod of Bishops?

The XIV Ordinary General Assembly of the Synod of Bishops will continue the work of the III Extraordinary General Assembly by "reflect[ing] further on the points discussed so as to formulate appropriate pastoral guidelines" for the pastoral care of the person and the family (Instrumentum Laboris, III Extraordinary General Assembly of the Synod of Bishops).

Where will the XIV Ordinary General Assembly of the Synod of Bishops take place?

The Synod will convene in Vatican City.

Which US bishops will attend the XIV Ordinary General Assembly of the Synod of Bishops?

To date, it has not been announced which bishops from the United States will attend the Ordinary General Assembly. The number of bishops who attend Ordinary General Assemblies is larger than the number who attend Extraordinary General Assemblies. The majority of the bishops who attend the Ordinary General Assembly from the United States will be elected by the USCCB.

When was the last time a Synod of Bishops discussed marriage and the family?

The most recent Synod of Bishops on the theme of the family took place in 1980 (V Ordinary General Assembly of the Synod of Bishops). Pope St John Paul II's 1981 apostolic exhortation Familiaris Consortio, on the role of the Christian family in the modern world, was written at the request of that Synod's Fathers.

Prayer to the Holy Family for the Synod

Jesus, Mary and Joseph,
in you we contemplate
the splendor of true love,
to you we turn with trust.

Holy Family of Nazareth,
grant that our families too
may be places of communion and prayer, authentic schools of the Gospel and small domestic Churches.

Holy Family of Nazareth,
may families never again
experience violence,
rejection and division:
may all who have been hurt
or scandalized find ready comfort and healing.

Holy Family of Nazareth,
may the approaching Synod of Bishops make us once more mindful of the sacredness
and inviolability of the family,
and its beauty in God's plan.

Jesus, Mary and Joseph,
graciously hear our prayer.
Amen.

National 54-Day Rosary Novena

On Monday, September 29, 2014, the Rosary Evangelization Apostolate and a number of national Catholic organizations are launching a National 54-Day Rosary Novena for Peace and the Family with a special focus on marriage, human life and religious freedom. These are key issues which we, as Catholic, are fully immersed and realize their vast importance. The Novena will conclude on Friday, November 21. The Rosary Evangelization Apostolate has launched a special website – www.54days.org with flyers, bulletin announcements and other resources to assist you in communicating about the Novena.

Also available is a special series of online inspirational text messages that participants can receive each day via their Smartphones. Thank you for your prayerful consideration of this effort.

Catholic Evangelization Conference

Immaculate Conception Seminary School of Theology invites you to a Catholic Evangelization Conference on Saturday October 4, 2014 from 9 am until 12:30 pm at Our Lady of Mt. Carmel Parish Center, 1 Passaic Street in Ridgewood. Cost: $10 per person (payable at the door)

- 8:30 am - Holy Mass (optional)
- 9:00 am - 9:30 am Gathering & Lt. Breakfast
- 9:30 am - 12:30 pm Program

Registration (is encouraged) at 973-761-9575, or theresa.miller@shu.edu. Our morning will include prayer, reflection and discussion of the following: Is evangelization just another "new thing" in our Church? What are the defining elements of Catholic evangelization? What is the role of the Holy Spirit in evangelization? Why did John Paul II introduce the concept of the New Evangelization and what does it mean? What is Pope Francis' "style" of evangelization? Is it something we can imitate? How can we live out the call to evangelize in our daily lives? ...and more! Julie V. Burkey, D.Min., Coordinator, Workplace Spirituality & Evangelization Initiative, and Adjunct Professor of Pastoral Theology, holds a Master's degree from Immaculate Conception Seminary and a Doctor of Ministry degree from The Catholic University of America. Dr Burkey teaches Catholic Evangelization, New Evangelization and Catechesis, and Theology of Work.
