Safeguarding Children and Addressing Abuse

The Archdiocese Addresses Victims' Concerns

The Archdiocese takes very seriously the needs of victims who approach the Church seeking healing from abuse. In addition to offering counseling and other support services, in appropriate cases, the Archdiocese provides reasonable compensation to those victims seeking a financial settlement of their civil claim, even after the statute of limitations has lapsed. Settlements are not confidential unless requested by the victim, and may include funding for continued psychological counseling.

The Archdiocese's general liability insurance coverage is the sole source of funds used to pay abuse settlements. Although the Archdiocese, parishes and schools pay premiums to purchase insurance, no parish or school assets, Archdiocesan assets or Annual Appeal or other fundraising collections are used to pay civil claims related to abuse cases.

NOVEMBER 2ND

"All Souls"

The month of November is dedicated to All The Faithful Departed with All Souls Day being celebrated on November 2nd. This day, especially, is a traditional time for visiting graves of loved ones. For this reason, we ask that you take time to please remember to fill in the names of your dearly departed family members and friends whom you would like to have remembered during the Masses of the All Souls Novena as well as during the Masses offered over the balance of the month of November.

Special Altar Cloth For November

On All Souls Day, November 2003, a very special cloth was laid on the altar. Over the last one hundred years, many gifts have been shared with our Parish in remembrance of loved ones who have died.

Quite often, vestments to be used at Mass are given. Some of these memorials are sent around the world so that priests who cannot afford quality vestments may come before the altar properly attired. The generosity of the Saint Anne's family over the years has touched many other parishes and churches. But, with so many years and such generous people, we still had vestments that, due to age, could no longer be used.

A very talented seamstress, Jane Cecere, took these vestments and created a special altar cloth, which recalls all the souls of our faithful departed. Twenty-three vestments were used to create the 40 squares of the All Souls Quilted Altar Cloth. We will continue to use this altar cloth during each All Souls Novena, as we remember the parishioners of the past, with the prayers of the parishioners of the present.

You Are the Eyes of this Bulletin

Every week this bulletin brings you news about the life of the parish, the church and the Catholic world. All it is missing is your photos.

Over the past several months the staff of St Ann has worked diligently to improve the quality of this bulletin. We believe that a pleasant-looking weekly newsletter not only proves more effective in delivering relevant information about the parish, it also contributes to a deeper spiritual engagement from parishioners. The bulletin also gathers news from Catholic life beyond the borders of the parish in an effort to anchor our local life in our universal

Church and raise parishioner awareness on important aspects of what it means to be Catholic. At this point the one thing we feel is missing is more photos to illustrate the life of the parish, so we are calling YOU out to take photos of parish events — fundraisers, meetings, masses and Sacraments — and send them to us so we could include them in the bulletin. Take photos using your cell phone and email them to parishoffice@stannesjc.org

When you send the photo from an iPhone, make sure to select "Actual Size" for better quality:

Too little, too late, again!

By Msgr Robert S Meyer
Pastor of Ss Peter and Paul, Hoboken
and Administrator of St Lawrence, Weehawken

Last year, the Wall Street Journal reported that the Archdiocese of New York is planning to close parishes, again. The announcement notes that closures and other changes could be finalized by next fall and will likely be more extensive than a similar move in 2007, when the Archdiocese closed 21 parishes.

The article states that the planned closures reflect the tectonic shifts affecting the Catholic Church across the US, where many Northeast and Midwest dioceses have had to close parishes while the South and West are experiencing growth partially caused by religious Latino populations. A spokesperson said, "You cannot run away from reality."

In the 1950s and early 1960s, Catholic Mass attendance at every parish in the nation was at an all-time high. In the past, in many parishes there were five packed Masses every Sunday. On holy days, Christmas and Easter it was standing room only. In those days people went to church on a regular basis, and when it came time for the collection, people willingly contributed money.

▶ Read the original article from the WSJ at tiny.cc/toolittletoolate

By the mid-1970s many church rules and rituals were relaxed in the name of modernity and convenience. Some believe that something about this switch made a lot of people stop going to Mass altogether.

While some may think that this article has nothing to do with us, it's New York after all, just across the river! Let's not be naïve. Here in the Archdiocese of Newark, even here in Jersey city, we face the same "challenges" and potential "remedies". Now is the time for Catholics to attend regularly and support their parish church generously, whichever one it is, otherwise, it will be too little, too late, again!
