Home of Reverence

Eucharistic amazement is expressed in reverence and in the dignity and care brought to every celebration of Mass. These are attitudes that befit not only the priest and other sacred ministers, but all the baptized.

Through Baptism and Confirmation, God has prepared his children to stand in his presence and offer him worship. Christian, says Saint Leo the Great, know your dignity (Sermon I on the Birth of the Lord).

The first school of reverence is the home. Children can earn from their earliest years to make the sign of the cross slowly and deliberately, to kneel in adoration, to listen quietly, to stand in attention, and to treat holy things with respect. Adults can show by their example that the church is the house of God and the Mass the holiest of mysteries.

In true reverence there is nothing constrained or artificial. Reverence is a joyful and gracious thing, akin to the wonder of one who finds himself face to face with a great beauty, or heart to heart with a great love.

To every word and gesture of the Mass give the imprint of reverence. I bow down before your holy temple, says the psalmist, filled with awe (PSALM 5:8).

Memorial Recital Remembering Bishop Donato

A Memorial Recital remembering Bishop Thomas Donato will be held on Sunday, November 15, 3 PM at St Henry's Church in Bayonne. The event will be presented by Henry C. Rawls & The Covenant Choir and accompanied by Daniel McCulloch. All proceeds to benefit the National Pancreatic Cancer Foundation. This event is free and open to the public. For more information, call 908.884.8430 or 201.436.0857

Safeguarding Children and Addressing Abuse

The Archdiocese Acts to Protect Youth and Children

Archbishop Myers has stated categorically that the primary responsibilities of the Archdiocese are to protect children and young people, and to promote the healing of, and provide compassion to, victims of abuse.

The Archdiocese of Newark requires all staff and volunteers working with children and youth to undergo background checks and receive sexual abuse awareness training. More than 20,000 Clergy, Religious and Lay people have received this training and undergone criminal background checks.

Nearly 95,000 children annually receive safe environment training through our Catholic schools and through opportunities offered to public school students in our religious education programs.

The Archdiocese utilizes the services of a Licensed Clinical Social Worker as the first contact for individuals who allege that they were abused so that counseling and other support services can be offered immediately if appropriate – sometimes even before a determination is made regarding the credibility of an allegation.

A full-time Office of Child and Youth Protection dedicated to protecting children works with parishes and schools to ensure that safe environments are in place throughout the Archdiocese.

Next Step in Technology at St Anne

If you remember, in late summer, I announced the launch of a brand new parish website, www. sahjerseycity.com, and wrote briefly of the increasing importance for parishes to harness the power of technology, which is omnipresent in the classroom, the workplace and the home. Apart from being visually appealing, the new website is user friendly (intentionally formatted to mimic the weekly bulletin in order to facilitate ease of use) and useful — currently, you can register with the parish through the website, either for the first time, or amend your current registration to reflect any changes in address or other contact information. Registration is also available for the Family Faith Formation Program. Baptism is in the works. Weather bulletins and other timely information will also be broadcast on the website, so bookmark and check it periodically.

In keeping with this continuing effort to utilize technology effectively and responsibly for the longterm wellbeing of the parish, as of last weekend, we have entered the 'twitter sphere'. Five parish twitter feeds are now online. Four are to facilitate the main clusters of the Family Faith Formation Program: sah_promise for kindergarteners and first graders; sah_goodnews, for second and third graders; sah_venture, for fourth, fifth and sixth graders, and sah_visions, for seventh and eighth graders. The fifth feed is stah_nation, and is for the parish at large. One more feed is to be brought online in the coming weeks, earmarked for the Confirmation program. Families registered with the Family Faith Formation program have been asked to 'follow' the respective feed(s) for their cluster(s). Everyone is encouraged to follow the general parish feed, stah_nation. From this weekend, the parish website will feature links to the various Twitter feeds, click on the appropriate link, and you will be taken to that particular Twitter account, once there, click 'follow'. Twitter is fast, easy, and free. If you don't have a Twitter account, you can open one with just a valid email. Next week I will touch on twitter etiquette.

Thanks for your attention — NRM The new Twitter feeds:

Making Your Medical Treatment Wishes Known Through An Advance Directive

Why have an Advance Directive?

Many choose to have an advance directive simply for their own peace of mind. Others do it to obviate the need for difficult decision making by their loved ones when they are already facing a very difficult time.

What are Advance Directives?

Advance directives are documents, such as a living will, healthcare proxy or durable power of attorney for healthcare that allow you to clearly express in writing and provide direction to your family, friends and medical personnel concerning your future medical care at a time when you cannot speak for yourself. The form your advance directive takes is up to you and you may choose a:

Living Will

A living will is a document that outlines a set of instructions that document your wishes about life-sustaining medical care. Should you become terminally ill, incapacitated, or unable to communicate or make decisions, a living will protects your rights and wishes to accept or refuse medical care.

Healthcare Proxy

In a healthcare proxy, you designate or appoint a person or agent to make your medical decisions if you are unable to do so. The person chosen should be someone you know well and trust to honestly represent your preferences should you become terminally ill, incapacitated or unable to communicate or make decisions. The person you choose may have to use their own judgment in the event of a medical decision for which your wishes are not known, so it is important to that you thorough discuss your wishes with said person before naming them as your agent.

Durable Power of Attorney for Healthcare

A durable power of attorney for health care is a legal document created only for the limited purpose of making health care decisions. When creating a durable power of attorney you must also choose an agent, who is the person you designate to carry out the wishes and duties you have outlined in the durable power of attorney. The agent should be someone you trust, who will not take advantage of you when you are incapacitated, and who is willing to serve as your agent. You should also consider naming a second person to act as an agent in the event that your first choice is unavailable or is unwilling to make the decision.

Once you have signed your advance directive, you should inform your physician(s), family, and your religious advisor. Note that if you change your mind after creating the document, you can amend or revoke it at any time. Should you have any questions about on advance directives, please contact Elizabeth F Caraballo, Esq at director@thewaterfrontproject.org.

CATHOLIC CEMETERIES, A MINISTRY OF THE ARCHDIOCESE OF NEWARK

Did You Know?

- Within the first 24 hours of a death, a spouse and/or family members will have to make at least 50 difficult and emotional decisions under stressful circumstances.
- The spouse alone often must bear much of this heavy burden, since many of today's families are widely spread.
- On occasion, the spouse and/or family will second-guess hastily made decisions and will wonder is that what Mom or Dad would have wanted?

You have an opportunity at the present time to ease an alreadystressful situation for your family by pre-planning final arrangements. It is genuinely a loving gift for your family. Speak with a Memorial Planning Advisor at Catholic Cemeteries or stop by an upcoming open house event to learn more about making cemetery arrangements in advance. Call 888-498-5209 or visit www. #### Baptism Information

Baptisms take place on the 1st Sunday of every Month: 2 Baptisms per Mass at 10 AM & 12 Noon (English). Because they will be promising to help raise your child in the practice of the Faith, the church requires that at least one of your child's godparents be a 'fully initiated Roman Catholic;' i.e., one who has been Baptized and received the sacraments of Holy Communion and Confirmation. At the time of registering your child for Baptism, we ask that one of your chosen godparents provide a copy of their Confirmation certificate or some documentation from their church of Baptism or Confirmation indicating the month and year of their Confirmation. GODPARENTS & PARENTS are also required to attend a "baptism instruction" session on Saturday (the day before the Baptism) @ 4:00 PM in CHURCH (English & Spanish). A donation to the church for Baptism is always appreciated: please place your offering in an envelope marked 'BAPTISM' with your child's name and drop it in the Sunday collection basket. Contact the office with any questions. Thank You.
