SAINT OF THE WEEK

St. Elizabeth of Hungary

St. Elizabeth was born in Hungary in 1207, the daughter of Alexander II, King of Hungary. At the age of four she was sent for education to the court of the Landgrave of Thuringia, to whose infant son she was betrothed. As she grew in age, her piety also increased by leaps and bounds. In 1221, she married Louis of Thuringia and in spite of her position at court began to lead an austere simple life, practiced penance, and devoted herself to works of charity.

St. Elizabeth is the patron saint of bakers, countesses, death of children, falsely accused, the homeless, nursing services, tertiaries, widows, and young brides. Her symbols are alms, flowers, bread, the poor, and a pitcher.

CONFERENCE

Economy and Social Justice

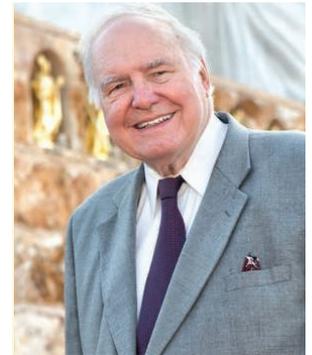

The Immaculate Conception Seminary School of Theology is proud to welcome Michael Novak to speak on the topic Pope Saint John Paul II and Pope Francis on an Authentically Human Economy on Monday, November 16, at 7 PM in Jubilee Hall Auditorium, Seton Hall University.

Novak's lecture will provide a unique opportunity to hear insights into the moral ideals of a capitalistic society from an exceptionally popular speaker and teacher who has delivered commentary through his books and lectures nationally and internationally.

His latest book, Social Justice Isn't What You Think It Is, will be available for purchase and book signing in Jubilee Hall on the evening of his lecture. Advanced registration is strongly encouraged. RSVP to Anna Capizzi at (973) 275-2440 or anna.capizzi@student.shu.edu or simply <http://www7.shu.edu/theology/michael-novak.cfm> to register.

About the Speaker

Michael Novak is a theologian, author, teacher, husband and father. He is a retired George Frederick Jewett Scholar in Religion, Philosophy, and Public Policy at the American Enterprise Institute. He served as human rights ambassador under Ronald Reagan in 1981 and 1982 and led the US delegation to the Conference on Security and Cooperation in Europe in 1986. Novak was awarded the Templeton Prize for Progress in Religion in 1994, a distinction he shares with Mother Teresa, the 14th Dalai Lama and Archbishop Desmond Tutu. As an author, Novak has been involved in the writing and editing of more than 45 books. As an educator, his curriculum vitae includes teaching at Hartford, Stanford, SUNY Old Westbury, Syracuse and Notre Dame. Since 2010, Novak has maintained a home base in southwest Florida, where he continues his work as a visiting professor at

Michael Novak

Ave Maria University while preparing his latest book, Social Justice Isn't What You Think It Is, which will be released in November. Michael Novak was a respected ally and friend of Pope Saint John Paul II. Novak's biography states that he considers his greatest honor to be that Pope John Paul II several times mentioned him in public as his friend. In a 2014 Op-Ed, Jerry Bower of Forbes Magazine referred to Novak as the scholar who taught John Paul II to appreciate capitalism.

This Man Welcomes Sinners and Eats With Them

By Sr Mary Joseph Schultz, SCC

There was a time in my life when someone made the remark to me, "You have some really messed-up friends." At the time, being much younger, I was a little perturbed and insulted. But now I would take it as a compliment! The tax collectors and sinners were surrounding Jesus to listen to Him. The Scribes and Pharisees were complaining about the company He was keeping.

I think back to some Saturday nights over 20 years ago when several high school students showed up regularly at the convent to "hang out" with their theology teacher rather than going out to get into trouble in town. We had some great evenings, sometimes running into midnight, just laughing, telling stories, and sharing cookies. They had questions, they were searching for Truth and acceptance. The Sisters I lived with were infinitely patient. And now it is clear that the Holy Spirit was guiding it all.

As Pope Francis urges, we, as Christians, have to go out of our comfort zones to the margins to gather those lost sheep, to search for the lost coins, to welcome them in. Sometimes it might appear inconvenient or unseemly. Sometimes it only takes a chair and a cookie.

Gracious God, Good Shepherd, open my eyes to see who and how I can welcome in the strays.

The Archdiocese Responds to all Allegations Quickly and Appropriately

Some of you may have heard (or seen) Spotlight, the movie which depicts the efforts of the Boston Globe investigation team to bring into the public eye the clergy sexual abuse problems in the Boston Archdiocese back in 2001-2002. The Archdiocese of Newark has clarified that this movie describes past events. Here is what the situation is today.

In line with Archbishop Myers' personal directive and a Memorandum of Understanding with County Prosecutors, the Archdiocese reports all allegations of sexual abuse of minors to the local County Prosecutor, and cooperates with law enforcement investigations.

Those accused of abuse are temporarily removed from ministry or assignment while investigations are ongoing. If the allegation is substantiated, the removal is permanent.

Since his arrival in 2001, Archbishop Myers has removed permanently from ministry 19 priests against whom allegations were substantiated and who faced penalties under Church law. Only two Archdiocesan priests have been convicted or pleaded guilty to criminal charges involving minors during this same time, and both have resigned or been dismissed from the priesthood. No Archdiocesan priest has been charged with a crime involving minors since 2004.

Baptism Information

Baptisms take place on the 1st Sunday of every Month: 2 Baptisms per Mass at 10 AM & 12 Noon (English). Because they will be promising to help raise your child in the practice of the Faith, the church requires that at least one of your child's godparents be a 'fully initiated Roman Catholic,' i.e., one who has been Baptized and received the sacraments of Holy Communion and Confirmation. At the time of registering your child for Baptism, we ask that one of your chosen godparents provide a copy of their Confirmation certificate or some documentation from their church of Baptism or Confirmation indicating the month and year of their Confirmation. GODPARENTS & PARENTS are also required to attend a "baptism instruction" session on Saturday (the day before the Baptism) @ 4:00 PM in CHURCH (English & Spanish). A donation to the church for Baptism is always appreciated: please place your offering in an envelope marked 'BAPTISM' with your child's name and drop it in the Sunday collection basket. Contact the office with any questions. Thank You.
