SAFEGUARDING CHILDREN AND ADDRESSING ABUSE:

The Archdiocese Reports all Allegations of Abuse

Going away?

Summer has arrived, but our faith and our responsibilities towards our parish are not taking any vacation because the parish bills are not taking any time off! So if you are going away please remember to "Make up" for missed collections by giving your offering before you leave or after you are back. Supporting your parish is an important responsibility and we count on you to maintain the sustainability of our parish. Thank you in advance for your generosity!

Salvation Extended to All People

The Gospel of Luke, written around AD 80–90, is best understood in light of the author's background. Luke was not Jewish, nor was he among the first generation of Christian disciples. He did not know or travel with Jesus. To write his Gospel, he depended on the testimony and traditions of eyewitnesses to Jesus' life and death.

Luke, as a Gentile, was intent on sharing Jesus' life story, teachings, and message of universal Salvation. In the passage before this Sunday's Gospel, Jesus cures the dying slave of a Gentile. Throughout his Gospel, Luke demonstrates that God's promises to Israel are fulfilled in Jesus and that Salvation through Jesus Christ is extended to all people. In this Sunday's Gospel, Jesus and his disciples are approaching the city of Naim when they come upon a large funeral procession. The only son of a widow is being carried out. Jesus, filled with pity for the grieving mother, tells her not to weep.

He then touches the coffin and tells the young man to arise. With that, the dead man gets up and starts speaking. The crowd, amazed at what they have just witnessed, praise God, saying, A great prophet has arisen in our midst and God has visited his people.

This is reminiscent of what we hear in today's First Reading from 1 Kings when the prophet Elijah raised from the dead the only son of a widow. The woman's response is recognition of Elijah as a prophet, a man of God: It is truly the word of the LORD that you speak.

For all these people, at this point in time, Jesus is a great prophet doing wonders and speaking in the name of God. Even John the Baptist sent his followers to listen to Jesus and report back to him. John's question was: Are you the one who is to come, or should we look for another? (LUKE 7:19) The time for the full revelation of Jesus' person and his mission is yet to come.

St. Anne's Festival Digital Journal Advertisement

St. Anne's Festival 2016 is set to take place on July 22, 23, 24, 2016. For the last 19 years, we have held an annual 3-day indoor/outdoor Festival honoring our Patroness, Saint Anne and raising funds for the parish and community. In an effort to strengthen and revive our commitment to both parishioners and the community, we have developed a new theme for this year's Festival: "Back to the Roots." Our goal is to connect and reconnect members of our community as a whole—both past and present, old and new.

The festival will include LIVE NIGHTLY ENTERTAINMENT, traditional festival foods, games of chance, a Grand 50/50 drawing and much, much more! Most importantly, it's an opportunity to spend a fun-filled summer weekend with family and friends of our community.

This year, the Festival Committee will be producing a digital St. Anne's Festival Souvenir Journal; (physical prints of the journal will be made only through special request); please attach your ad material to enclosed form.

The JOURNAL will highlight the different activities during the celebration and contain advertisements and well-wishes (a memoriam, living wishes, birth announcements, congratulatory on graduations, engagements, weddings, special anniversaries, etc) to and from many supporters. You may include a picture for your ad at no additional charge!

The journal pages are 8 1/2" x 11" and are available at the following rates:

- Full Page $125.00
- Half Full Page $ 75.00
- Quarter Page $ 50.00
- Special Donors $ 25.00

The Archdiocese will be conducting a Grief to Grace Retreat during the week of September 11-16, 2016. Grief to Grace is a psychological and spiritual journey providing safety and support for anyone who has suffered degradation or violation through physical, emotional or sexual abuse or neglect. It is appropriate for those who have endured rape, incest, or other forms of traumatic violation in childhood, adolescence or as an adult. It is also suitable for those who have suffered abuse by a member of the clergy. This model of care provides therapy for the soul. We encourage anyone in need of healing to participate in this worthwhile program.
