Scriptural Reflections on Stewardship

Through the power of God, we can be a light to the world by our loving concern for others, especially the poor and the oppressed.

"Thus says the Lord: Share your bread with the hungry, shelter the oppressed and the homeless;" - Isaiah 58:7

No matter how busy we are or how tight our budget might be, we are all called to have compassion for those who are less fortunate than us. We hear these instructions in both the Old and New Testament. In fact, Jesus tells us that we will be judged by how well we reach out to those who were hungry, thirsty, homeless, sick, grieving or in need of our compassion in any way.

Every Tuesday, the Blessed Sacrament is exposed in the church from 3 to 4 p.m. It is an hour of prayer for the priests, religious men and women and an increase of vocations to the priesthood and the religious life of the Church. We invite you to come and spend time with the Lord for these intentions and for your personal requests. Holy Hour closes with Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament.

Evangelization Corner.....

Reflecting On The Gospel - In today's Gospel, Jesus tells us that we are the salt of the earth. What does this mean?

Salt improves the flavor of food and helps it stay fresher longer. Jesus helps us better understand how we, as people of faith, can bring a special flavor to the world and help charity and justice remain fresh in our families, neighborhood, and around the world. As Catholic Christians, we bring a very special flavor of sweet goodness to everyone. This is the love of Jesus. He also tells us that we are the light of the world. What does that mean? Light illuminates darkness; light makes things clear, makes things grow, makes it possible for us to work and play. Jesus tells us not to hide the light of our faith but, rather, to let it shine brightly.

Sharing Ideas - Share what you could do to be the salt of the earth and light of the world.
