Advance Directive for Health Care – The Catholic Perspective

Documents which provide guidance when a person is no longer able to make health care decisions are called “advance directives.” It is recommended that those completing an advance directive also appoint a health care representative who is someone who is trusted and authorized to evaluate what the patient would want and to make those health care decisions. The Catechism of the Catholic Church provides clear guidance on end of life issues. The New Jersey Catholic Conference (NJCC) of Bishops has an Advance Directives for Health Care form which reflects the Catholic perspective. Copies are available by contacting the Respect Life Office at 732-388-8211. A copy can also be downloaded from the diocesan website at <http://www.diometuchen.org/deptsministries/respect-for-life/catholic-advance-directives-living-wills/> or the NJCC website: www.njcathconf.com. These forms are also available in Spanish.

A Catholic Guide to End-of-Life Decisions is a resource made available by the National Catholic Bioethics Center. This document provides a clear explanation of the Church’s teaching on end-of-life care, including advance directives and physician assisted suicide. Individual copies of this guide can be ordered online at www.ncbcenter.org.

La Perspectiva Católica: Formulario para Directivas Anticipadas sobre Cuidados de la Salud

Los documentos que proveen instrucción cuando una persona ya no puede tomar decisiones en cuanto el cuidado de su salud se llaman “directivas anticipadas.” Se les recomienda a las personas que formulan una directiva anticipada que también designen como representante de cuidado de salud a una persona de confianza, que es autorizado para evaluar lo que el enfermo desearía y que tome esas decisiones de cuidado de salud. El Catecismo de la Iglesia Católica provee enseñanzas claras sobre las cuestiones relacionadas con el final de la vida. La Conferencia Católica de New Jersey (NJCC) de los Obispos tiene un formulario de Directiva Anticipada sobre Cuidados de la Salud que refleja la perspectiva católica. Se puede conseguir copia del formulario por la Oficina de Respeto por la Vida: teléfono 732-388-8211. Se puede bajar una copia de la página diocesana de Internet: <http://www.diometuchen.org/deptsministries/respect-for-life/catholic-advance-directives-living-wills/> o de la página de Internet de NJCC: www.njcathconf.com . Estos formularios están disponibles en español.

Una Guía Católica a las Decisiones Relacionadas con el Final de la Vida es un recurso del Centro Católico Nacional de Bioética. Este documento provee una explicación clara de la enseñanza de la Iglesia sobre el cuidado de la persona al acercarse el final de la vida, incluyendo directivas anticipadas y el suicidio asistido por un médico. Se puede conseguir copias de esta guía por Internet: www.ncbcenter.org .
