Let Us Pray For The Sick

People will remain on sick list for 2 weeks unless otherwise notified:

Meghan Connaughton, Jimmy Harper, Ema Oda, Haydee Castillo, Angelina Giacaline, Faith McCauley, Marie Portelli, Michael Panas, Anthony Biggio, Miyuki Campbell, Salomon Rios, Isabel Gonzalez, Sammy DeLeon, Julieta Cernero, June Gittins, Roy Maglori, Shane Quinn, Alice Daly, Sadie Krieger, Madeline Gerrity, Emilie Jaworowski, Dolores DelMonte, Bill Waddleton Sr., Dianne O'Sullivan, Carl Carlson, Carol Jordan, Larry Bello, Nick Manente

Special Announcement

Over the past few weeks, the number of people on the list of the sick has grown. Last Sunday there were 30. Everyone who requests to be on the list, should be included, but we can only accommodate so many names during the Prayers of the Faithful, before it begins to draw attention to itself for the wrong reasons. With this in mind, the prayer for the sick will be prayed without the reading of individual names; those will continue to be published in the bulletin, and, unless otherwise notified, will remain on that list for 2 weeks.

Outreach to the sick and the infirm was an important part of Jesus' ministry on earth, and so it is for all the baptized; we visit, we comfort, we pray for the sick, especially when we gather as Church on Sundays.

Our Parish is Served by:

Very Rev. Nigel R. Mohammed, VF - Parish Priest
Rev. John Ranieri - Pastoral Associate
Ms. Begonia Jensen - Adult Education (RCIA)

Fighting Fraud

Many of us are very trusting souls. Indeed, a substantial part of human interaction involves trust. Many people act with good will, but there are always a few who have devious intentions. National Fraud Awareness Week (August 1-7) was designated to remind people that it is important to protect essential information from those who would want to use it for their own benefit. Scams are an attempt to gain money or some other goods by falsely representing a situation. One common one involves a person pretending to be a grandchild in trouble who calls asking to be wired money in a distant country. Never be too quick to wire money without checking with someone. Another common type of fraud is the appearance of extra charges on an online purchase. Always double check a credit card statement to make sure you are only paying for what you ordered. Never give out your Social Security number or birth date to someone who calls you. Always protect these important parts of your identity. The best way to fight fraud is to be aware that it exists, and to be ready to contact authorities if you suspect that it is occurring.
